OUT IN THE COLD AT YSS SLEEPOUT

Youth Services System held its annual Wheeling SleepOut on Friday at the Miracle League Field at the I-470 Athletic Complex in Elm Grove. Groups who entered were tasked with building shelters out of cardboard and other specific materials that a person could sleep in overnight. ABOVE: Justin Good, left, and Matt Porter of the Ziegenfelder Co. fasten their shelter together with duct tape. RIGHT: Jenn Velez, standing, and Ashton Carroll decorate their shelter while talking to Rylee Reis inside, who is fastening it together.

Photos by Derek Redd